	)	Complaint

There is reason to believe that the Respondents named herein have willfully violated the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended and supplemented (7 U.S.C. § 181 et seq.; hereinafter "Act") and the regulations promulgated thereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture (9 C.F.R. § 201.1 et seq.; hereinafter "Regulations"), and, therefore, this complaint is issued alleging the following:

I.

(a) Vermilion Ranch Company, d/b/a Billings Livestock Commission Company (hereinafter "Corporate Respondent"), is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Montana, whose mailing address is 2443 N. Frontage Road, Billings, Montana 59101.

(b) At all times material herein, Corporate Respondent was:

(1) Engaged in the business of a market agency buying and selling livestock in commerce on a commission basis; and

(2) Registered with the Secretary of Agriculture as a market agency to buy and sell livestock in commerce on a commission basis.

(c) Patrick Goggins (hereinafter "Individual Respondent"), is an individual whose mailing address is P.O. Box 30758, Billings, Montana 59107.

(d) At all times material herein, Individual Respondent was:

(1) President of Corporate Respondent;

(2) Fifty percent owner of Corporate Respondent; and

(3) Responsible for the direction, management, and control of Corporate Respondent.

II.

Corporate Respondent, under the direction, management, and control of the Individual Respondent, was placed on notice, by certified mail received on or about July 13, 2006,[1] that they were operating with a Custodial Account for Shippers' Proceeds (hereinafter "custodial account") shortage. Respondents were informed that the shortage was due, in part, to the market's failure to reimburse the custodial account in a timely manner for owner and employee purchases and, also, to the market's failure to reimburse the custodial account for proceeds receivable that were not collected by the close of the seventh day after sale. The letter directed Respondents to section 201.42(c) of the Regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42(c)) and informed them that failure to timely reimburse the custodial account was an unfair trade practice in violation of sections 307(a) and 312(a) of the Act (7 U.S.C. §§ 208(a), 213(a)). The letter also placed Respondents on notice that they were allowing the auctioneer to buy cattle out of consignment while working in the capacity of auctioneer in violation of section 201.56(c) of the Regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.56(c)). Finally, the letter informed Respondents that failure to correct the violations could result in penalties up to $11,000.00 for each violation.

[1] United States Postal Service Certified Mail Receipt for Article No. 7003 2260 0000 0248 4853 was stamped as being sent from Complainant's Aurora, Colorado regional office on July 11, 2006. United States Postal Service Domestic Return Receipt for Article Number No. 7003 2260 0000 0248 4853 was signed for by Paula Harris, Respondents' office manager, as being received on March 17, 2006, a date prior to the date sent. A Track and Confirm printout from the United States Postal Service website indicates that Article No. 7003 2260 000 0248 4853 was delivered in Billings, Montana on July 13, 2006. It is probable that Ms. Harris signed with the incorrect date.

III.

Corporate Respondent, under the direction, management and control of Individual Respondent, during the period of November 13, 2006, through January 24, 2007, failed to maintain and use properly its custodial account, thereby endangering the faithful and prompt accounting of shippers' proceeds and the payment due the owners or consignors of livestock in that:

(a) As of November 13, 2006, Corporate Respondent had outstanding checks drawn on its custodial account in the amount of $1,565,700.79 and had to offset such checks, a balance in the custodial account of $798,478.38 and proceeds receivable of $701,434.30 resulting in a deficiency of $65,788.11.

(b) As of January 24, 2007, Corporate Respondent had outstanding checks drawn on its custodial account in the amount of $493,711.56 and had to offset such checks, a balance in the custodial account of $296,064.85 and proceeds receivable of $131,584.62 resulting in a deficiency of $66,062.09.

(c) The shortages in Corporate Respondent's custodial account were due, in part, to Corporate Respondent's failure to deposit in its custodial account, within the time prescribed by section 201.42 of the Regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42), an amount equal to the proceeds receivable from the sale of consigned livestock.

IV.

(a) Corporate Respondent, under the direction, management, and control of Individual Respondent, on or about the dates and in the transactions set forth below, failed to maintain properly its custodial account in violation of section 210.42 of the Regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42) by failing to timely reimburse its custodial account for its own livestock purchases by the close of the next business day following the sale of the livestock.
